

PETRA DEETER, PH.D.

A FILMMAKER, A DYNAMIC SPEAKER, A VICTIM ADVOCATE

As Seen On

Dr. Petra Deeter is a serial entrepreneur, an award-winning film director and the founder of Sprinkle Media. As a survivor of child abuse & domestic violence, she is passionate about advocating for and empowering victims of abuse. She has made films and TV in many genres. Her recent films, REBORN and FREED, about domestic violence received many awards and were screened around the world. Currently, Dr. Deeter is working on a feature-length documentary film about parental alienation.

VICTIM TO HERO

Parental alienation is a unique form of child abuse and domestic violence. Dr. Petra Deeter has interviewed over 500 parents who have unjustifiably been alienated from their children, making her work the largest research study to date on alienated parents. Victim to Hero is a project by Dr. Deeter at Sprinkle Media to bring awareness to the public and to provide education and support for alienated parents.
